League Format:

The Anytime Singles League is a flexible league in which you and your opponent set up your own match times. Each player is given a list of the people in their division with their contact information, and you coordinate match times that fits your schedule. Divisions are based on NTRP rating system. At the end of divisional play, a play-off will be held to determine the winners of each league. Prizes will be awarded to the winners and runners-up in each league.
